FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1857.

THE RAILROAD VOTE .- It affords us much satis faction to announce the almost unanimous verdict of the stockholders of the Louisville and Frankfort railroad in favor of the subscription of $100,000 to the Lexington and Big Sandy railroad. The election was held yesterday, and almost two-thirds of the stockholders voted for the appropriation. There appears to be almost a perfect degree of unanimity upon this subject. It is essentially necessary that we connect Mt. Sterling, and the rich surrounding section to the north and east of that place, with our The trade thence, which may be directed here, est invaluable.

this seasonable aid we shall render more assistance than we have ever deemed in our power. We shall soon be enabled to see a railway opened from onrold mother State to the Atlantic seaboard. There of true jollity. is much wisdom in the vote recorded yesterday. It insures to us a continuous line of railway through Southern territory to the eastern cities-and that, to say the least, is a good desideratum.

LOOK OUT FOR THE IMMIGRATION .- Our Cincinnati exchanges state that there are many Eastern professional thieves now in that city. They are generally young men, and were driven from New York by the Chief of Police of that city showing up some thirty or forty professional rogues in the City Hall. Over fifty are reported in Eastern papers to have left New York at once. In Philadelphia nine of these refugees were detected in felonies of various sorts, and sent to the State Prison. The rogues went on to Baltimore, where their arrival was duly announced in the papers, and they have, it agent and superintendent. finally made the Doubtless when they are driven off from Cincinnati they will seek to carry on their felonious operations here. We hope our police will keep a sharp lookout for them and introduce them to comfortable quarters at Cave Hill on their arrival.

MR. SUMNER EXPECTS TO BE SHOT .- At the disunion convention held in Worcester, Mass., Thursda Rev. T. W. Higginson stated that he had a talk with Hon. Chas. Sumner, in Boston last week, and when he asked him if, when he got back to Washington, he would reiterate his words against slavery, Mr. Sumner replied-"Reiterate, reiterate. If, when I get back to Washington, I make the speech I expect to make, it will be like fourth-proof brandy to molasses and water." When asked what result he expected from it, he replied: "I expect to shot; there is nothing else left for them to do."

CRIMINAL COURT .- The January term of the Circuit Court concluded yesterday. Nothing whatever was done with the exception of the melancholy sentence of the following persons: Sherman, Polly Grimes, Mary Mack, Mary May, Ann Noyes, Davis, and Sanders, who depart for lodgings at Frankfort on Saturday next.

The two hundred stripes adjudged to the two negroes are to be awarded between the 2d and 10th of Februay-the sheriff not to administer more than

CITY AFFAIRS,-The sessions of the council and board of aldermen were, as usual, very protracted

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Baird, Monsarrat, and Monroe, was appointed to investigate the policy of constructing a branch railroad to the Gayson coal fields.

[For the Louisville Journal.] LINES ON THE DEATH OF MRS. M. C. M.

Inscribed to Her Bereaved Husband, BY A FRIEND.

How soon the beautiful of earth Fade on our sight, then pass away, Commencing from the hour of birth A sure decay.

A smile, a heart-throb, and a sigh, And dust returns to kindred dust, And earth guards well from mortal eye Her sacred trust.

And Mary-she the cherished one. Whose life a blessed influence shed On all who knew her—in the ground Lies cold and dead.

The past! the past! my heart is stilled, When looking back on by-gone hours, For memory's hallowed urn is filled With withered flowers.

Gone-but the music of her voice In sweetest echo lingers still; Yes, gone, with angels to rejoice On "Zion's Hill."

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Harrison (Texas) Flag says that there are 500 or 600 laborers employed upon the two first divisions of this road, and the Vicksburg papers assert that their road to the Texas line, to connect with the Southern Pacific, will be ready for use during the present year, so that the friends of the Pacific road may be able to eat their next Christmas turkey at Marshall in Texas, or at Tyler, thirty miles beyond Marshall, and travel thither on a railroad all the way from the Mississippi river. "The work goes bravely on.

THE CONCERT.-We were sorry to see so slim an attendance at Signorita Bertini's concert last night. She has a clear and sweet voice, and some of her vocal performances are indeed wonderful. We understand that some of the friends and admirers of Signorita B. have it in contemplation to give her a complimentary henefit, and we hope that their efforts in her behalf may be successful. An appeal for an artiste never has failed to enlist the gentlemen as well as the ladies in our city.

We received no mails from the East, North, or New Orleans yesterday or last night. The Cincinnati train arrived about 5 o'clock as Jeffersonville. Some of the passengers came to the city by walking over on the ice. No wagons ventured across after dark, and the Eastern mail could not be brought here

THE COLDEST DAY .- So the thermometer pronounced yesterday-so accorded the biting, rasping, fiendish attack upon our flesh. Old Boreas reveled in the discomfit and misery that he has brought us, Lexington to the Virginia line, and thence through and rang his bells and swelled his shouts in the spirit

PRINCE JOHN AND HIS PROPERTY .- John Van Buren said, it will be remembered, in his New York speech that he had a family to attend to and could not go to Kansas. It will be seen by the following item, which we clip from the N. O. Delta, that his prospective "family" has decreased considerably:

We learn from the Abbeville (S. C.) Independent Press, that the negroes on the estate of the Hon. Geo. McDuffie, numbering about 210, have been sold to a wealthy Wessern planter for $\frac{140,000}{2}$, being an average of near $\frac{8700}{2}$ each. It is stipulated in the sale that they should not be separated. It is said the heiress of this estate is shortly to be led to the alter of hymen by Jon Van Buren.

THE OLD WOOD FIRE .- Many of our citizens who have not toasted their shins by the crackling blaze of a wood fire since early boyhood, will recog nize the following description by "Peter Parley" and wish from the bottom of their hearts for such comforts in this season of intense cold and scarce fuel:

The fuel was supplied from the wood lot—sweet-scente hickory, snapping chestnut, odoriferous oak, and "reckin fizzling ash." It was a goodly sight to see these stalwar products of the forest laid in large pilea, all alive with say on the tall, gaunt andirons. You might have thought yo heard John Rogers and his family at the stake, by thei plaintiff simmerings. The building of a fire was a real architectural achievement favored by the wide yawning fire place, and was always begun by day-break. There wa first a back-log, from fifteen to four-and-twenty inches it diameter and five feet long, embedded in the ashes; thet came a top-log; then a fore-stick, and then a heap of kindlings, reaching from the bowels down to the bottom. A-to of all was a pyramid of smaller fragments, artfully adjust ed, with spaces for the blaze. Friction matches had no then been sent from the regions of brimstone, to enabl any boy or beggar to carry a conflagration in his pocket.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

THE RIVER.—Interruption of Ferry communication to Jeffersonville and New Albany .- River Gorged .-Giving away of Ice-Damage and Dangerons Position of Boats, &c .- The very cold weather has put an effectual stop to the running of the ferry-boats. The Jeffersonville boat, after trying all day to come across, succeeded, got within a few hundred feet of the wharf, and then returned to the other side. Mr. Avery measured the thickness of the ice in the river just below the tow-head, and found it from 6 to 8 inches thick. Teams were crossing on it last evening with safety.

The New Albany ferry-boat did not run at all vesterday, and persons were crossing the river on the ice.

The river gorged yesterday morning below New Albany, and this caused a rise of several feet at Portland, and floated off a large quantity of ice which had accumulated above. This ice came down with great force against the boats lying at Portland, and parted their lines.

The Alvin Adams, which was lying in shore her whole length and some distance above the fleet escaped, but all the others were lying close together, with their sterns out in the streams. The boats were lying in the following rotation: Virginia, Southerner, Empire, Fanny Bullitt, R. J. Ward, a new hull, A. L. Shotwell, Peter Tellon, Wm. Dixon, and Antelope. The Virginia, lying at the head of the fleet, parted her lines first, and all the others followed to the Antelope. The latter was forced on the wharf lengthwise by the Shotwell, which was forced against her, and the latter had her guard, stauncheons, and her cabin damaged. The new hull was forced alongside of the Shotwell. The Tellon sustained no dam age; she is however hard aground, and there is no possibility of her getting off until the river breaks up. The R. J. Ward, which was lying above the new hull, got aground by having her bow forced on the wharf, and this prevented the boats above her from coming in contact with those below. The Virginia, Southerner, Empire, and Fanny Bullitt were however forced several hundred yards in the river by the ice, and are now lying in that condition nemmed in by the gorge, which extends from Shippingsport to New Albany. They will have to remain there until the river broaks up, but are in no immediate danger. The Antelope and Wm. Dixon sustained no injury.

The Virginia, Fanny Bullitt, R. J. Ward, the new hull, A. L. Shotwell, Wm. Dixon, and Antelope are partially laden. The hull of the new boat belonged to St. Louis, and the Ward was to tow it to Cairo and had put some of her freight on it. Capt. Miller ommenced unloading it last evening.

We understand that a meeting of the board of underwriters will be held this morning to consider the propriety of unloading all the boats.

Steamer Highflyer Snnk .- Supposed to be a Total Loss .- Telegraphic dispatches were received by Messrs. Sherly, Bell & Co. last evening, announcing the sinking of this steamer. The Highflyer had come from New Orleans bound for this port, but finding the river closed above Paducah, took on board about half a load at that place, consisting of cotton and tobacco, and was on her return to New Orleans. She was sunk on the Grand Chain, in the Ohio river. and the dispatch states that it is supposed she will be a total loss. As soon as Capt. Reid, of the Fashion, which boat is laid up at Caire, and belongs to the same company, heard of the disaster, he started with his boat for the Highflyer, but the water at Cash Island was so low that the F. could not get to

The Highflyer was two or three years old, worth about $30,000, and insured for $18,000, divided between the following offices: Merchants' of Philadelphia $2,500, City Insurance of Cincinnati $2,500, Delaware Mutual Safety $3,000, Louisville Insurance Company $2,000, Jefferson Insurance Company, of this city, $2,000, Franklin Insurance Company, of this city, $2,000, and Commercial Insurance Company of Louisville $2,000.

The New Albany Ledger notices the closing of the river at that point, and adds: "This is the first time within the memory of the 'oldest inhabitant' that man who has lived here for forty years says he never saw such a spectacle before as the river in front of the city presented this morning."

The Cumberland river was frozen over at Nashville for the first time in twenty-one years, and persons were crossing it on the ice. The thermometer at Nashville on Monday morning stood 8 degrees below zero.

The weather was colder yesterday than it has been any preceding day this season. The thermometer at 7 o'clock yesterday morning stood 6 degrees below zero, and during the day it did not get higher than 6 degrees above zero; at 6 o'clock last evening it stood at zero, and at half-past 1 o'clock last night it stood at 6 degrees below zero.

The barometer was pretty high last night, but it had only risen one from noon yesterday to 12 o'clock

[From this morning's Journal.] THIRTY-FOURTH CONGRESS-SECOND SESSION. Thursday's Proceedings Concluded.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22. Senate.-The consideration of the Submarine Tele-

Senate.—The consideration of the Submarine Telegraph bill was resumed.

Mr. Plugh moved to amend by adding a proviso that no money shall be paid under the authority of this act until a convention shall have been concluded between the United States and Gritain, whereby such portions of the British Provinces in North America as command the western terminus of the telegraph shall have been subjected to the principle of neutralization, as adopted in the Central American treaty of 1850.

Mr. Seward said the discretion was lodged in the President, and, if he deemed the interest of this country required such treaty, he would doubtless take proper measures for that object.

Messrs. Hunter, Thompson, of Ky., Pearce, and Geyer opposed the bill for various reasons.

Mr. Weller was not willing that $70,000 a year should be expended by this telegraph while a similar connection with the Pacific, which was vastly more important, was rejected.

Mr. Butler was not willing to trust the destinies of this country to a wire controlled by Great Britain.

this country to a wire controlled by Great Britain, and urged other objections to the bill.

Messrs. Rusk, Douglas, Seward, and Mallory

ressed its passage.

Mr. Bayard remarked that it was certain that, if practicable, a line will be established, as we can prevent its construction by our refusal to partici-pate in the enterprise. He offered an amendment, which was adopted, providing for such arrangements as may be necessary to secure to each Government the transmission of its own messages by its own

Mr. Pugh withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Pugh withdrew his amendment.

dassachusetts.

The House bill to enforce the attendance of witnesses was read and by unanimous consent referred to the Judiciary committee, who forthwith called a meeting, and in the course of a few minutes reported it without amendment, and asked its immediate consideration. Mr. Wilson objected. Adjourned House.—Mr. Davis of Maryland, from a select committee, reported a substitute providing pains and penalties in addition to those now authorized. He explained that it contemplated definite and efficient punishment. No witness is to be hereafter allowed to wilfully refuse to give testimony or produce any papers, and if he do so he shall be liable to indictment for misdemeanor, and on conviction shall pay a fine of not more than $1,000 nor less than $100, and be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than twelve months nor less than one month, the witness to be protected from criminal prosecution for any testimony he may give before a Congressional committee, but not relieved from prosecution for perjury.

Mr. Davis called on the House to relieve the committee from the difficulties which stand at the threshold of their investigations.

Mr. Wilson wished to substitute imprisonment in jail instead of penitentiary, as the latter was used only for felonious offences, and to this the select ommittee agreed.

Mr. Washburn, of Me., wanted some effective bill to compel witnesses to give their testimony; the pu-rity of Congress demanded it, but the committee of the judiciary should examine the bill to ascertain the judiciary should examine the bill to ascertain whether its provisions were not inconsistent with the rights of citizens as secured by the constitution.

After further debate the bill passed—yeas 183, nays Messrs. Bennett, of N. Y., Billinghurst, Bliss, Burlingame, Colfax, Edwards, Houston, H. Marshall, Mace, Quitman, Walbridge, and Watson—12. BRITISH ARMY IN HINDOSTAN. - Most persons have very erroneous ideas of the distribution of the British troops, and the strength of the Indian army. The following is a return of the British and Indian army, made more than thirty years since in a time of peace. The probability is that it is much stronger

Total Indian Army..... Here is an immense army, of which about one hundred thousand are available in the field. Unite this army with the Affghans, and the perfect control of every foot of the seas, and with the finest part of Persia exposed from the coast, and we confess it is not quite evident how the Russian alliance, if it exist, is to avail Persia. Besides this, England can recruit her army from the natives to any extent, as the able-bodied fighting men in India number more than twelve millions.

The tariff, in the opinion of the best informed journals, is not likely to be materially altered this session of Cougress. Some of the interests which are to be affected by it will oppose all their influence to any reduction of the amount of protection af-forded by the present tariff. A compromise of those interests, as represented in the House, by their friends respectively, is talked of, and may possibly be brought about, if Congress should manifest a determination to reduce the revenue, at this session, to the wants of the Government. Many members, and particularly of the "Republican" party, are quite willing to let the subject lie over till the next

Can't Come In .- The testimony before the committee on territories shows that there are not a thousand persons in the Gadsden purchase (Arizona), nor enough who can read or write to organize a Legislature.

A movement is on foot in the "up-town" or fashionable section of New York city to number all the private dwellings, in large figures, upon the glass plates over the front doors, rendering them visible at night as well as by day.

Arithmetic for Managers.—There are five Sunday newspapers in the city of New York, with an aggregate circulation of 100,000 copies. They charge $2 each for advertising two squares—making an aggregate of $10 a week. The united notoriety which they can give to any performance would be worth, in the aggregate, at least $1,000. Add this to another $1,000 lost through their united opposition and we have an aggregate loss of $2,000 per week!

Sheriff Chissom in a Fix. — Sheriff Chissom, although in possession of the Gramercy Bank assets, and with the key of the safe in his pocket, finds himself in an awkward position, from the fact that he is unable to unlock the safe. The lock is one of the Lillie burglar proof construction, and is locked by a combination of numbers known only to the officers of the bank. The possession of the keys is no guarantee of an entrance. Chissom, however, does not despair of being able to show up the assets, although at present, to use a legal technicality, they are non-com-at-i-bus in-safe-i-bus.—Lafayette Courier.

A Long Coil.—The condensers of the new Collins steamship Adriatic, invented Mr. Allen of the Novelty Works, New York, cool the steam by means of 21 miles of brass tubing, through which cold sea water is made to pass constantly by two pumps. The condensed steam is thus fed back into the boilfree condensed steam is thus fed back into the boil-ers fresh. The brass tubing is cut into sections 12 feet long, so that the cooling power of the water passed through them must be nearly the same as if it were mixed with the steam in jets.

A Matrimonial Alliance.-Fashionable folks have sed to marry. Now, according to Jenkins and imitators, "they form a matrimonial alliance," his imitators, "they form a matrimonial alliance," upon which Susan Jane writes to inquire "if such an alliance is to be considered offensive and defensive?" Mr. Punch ventures to reply: "Offensive, when misfortune or difficulty is to be attacked and overcome; defeasive when sorrow or sickness as-sails; and expensive when certain little parties, whether or not, will join in the compact."

FACTS ABOUT THE KORAN.—The Koran was written about A. D. 610. Its general aim was to unite the professors of idolatry and the Jews and Christians in the worship of one God—whose unity was the chief point inculcated—under certain laws and ceremonies, exacting obedience to Mahomet as the prophet. It was written in the Koreish Arabic, and this language, which certainly possessed every fine quality, was said to be that of paradise. Mahomet asserted that the Koran was revealed to him, during a period of twenty-three years, by the Angel Gabriel.

The style of the volume is beautiful, fluent, The style of the volume is beautiful, fluent, and concise; and, where the majesty and attributes of God are described, it is sublime and magnificent. Mahomet admitted the divine mission both of Moses and Jesus Christ. According to Gibbon, the leading article of faith which Mahomet preached is compounded of an eternal truth and a necessary fiction, namely, that there is only one God, and that Mahomet is the apostle of God. The Koran was translated into Latin in 1143, and into English and other lated into Latin in 1143, and into English and other European languages about 1763. It is a rhapsody of 3,000 verses, divided into 114 sections.

A correspondent has sent us the following ommunication, and article from the New York Observer upon the condition and treatment of the inmates of New York poor-houses and prisons. We are satisfied that nothing of the kind will be found anywhere in Kentucky. In the jail in this city, t'ie cleanliness and comfort of the prisoners is scrupulously and kindly attended to. We believe that the management of both our alms-house and workhouse is unobjectionable. These institutions in this and other Southern States are not only under the supervision of the municipal and State authorities but are subjected to the inquisition of grand juries:

[For the Louisville Bulletin.]

MESSES. EDITORS: I cut the following astounding article from the last New York Observer. Can it be possible that such atroctices are practiced in a Christian land? This report seems to be authentic. How is it with our poor-houses? Will some of your readers who have thoroughly examined them please tell us how well they are managed? I long to be assured that they are just what they ought to be in every respect; for certainly the curse of God must fall upon the State or city in which exist such abominations as have been found in New York. "The poor we have always with us," and we are bound, not only by religion but by every principle of humanity, to see that they are comfortably previded for.

Poor-House Developments.—We are astounded and mortified at the disclosures made by the report of the Senate Committee on the condition of the Poor-Houses in the State of New York. We have not a copy of the document in hand, but we learn from the Albany Journal that the condition of some of the county poor-houses, as described therein, is almost incredible. They are badly built, worse arranged, not haif warmed, and not at all ventilated.

The unitortunate tenants of these places, when they are not starved, and fed upon tainted meat, spoiled fish, and decaying vegetables, are lodged either in open sheds, where they freeze, or in close hovels, where they suffocate. They sleep jiled in tiers. They sicken without attention, die without medicine, and are tossed into graves like brutes.

In one "institution" not less than one-fourth of its 137 inmates died (say rather were killed) in less than a single year! They are literally the abodes of Pestilence and Famine. While the same fare thus badly the insane fare worse. Blows and chains are the only prescriptions for mental disease. The lunatic is beaten because of his wandering mind, and the idiot pounded for his lack of sense. Some wretched ones lie upon straw, amid the accumulated filth of months, with no covering but such of this foul bed as adheres to their bodies. The blind, the deaf, the crippled, huddled together, are treated with equal inhumanity—as if they were doomed to suffer by the neglect of man as well as by the visitation of God.

The Supervisors, who should see and correct these abuses, sometimes do not visit the place once a year, sometimes not during their term of office. Not unfrequently contra-tors are permitted to grind a profit out of the labor of the miserable wretches and then starve them in return.

In many of the jails, while the bodily treatment is better, the moral influences are even worse. T

But your committee do think the object sought cannot be attained by the passage of the resolution referred to, nor by an appropriation of the public money by the City Council for such object, without first obtaining from the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company terms for the transportation of coal over their road, which, in connection with the cost over a branch railroad, should both be combined and submitted on a firm and fixed rate of tariff for transportation, before the city can with propriety decide on any proposition of expenditure; and, besides this, a coal company should first be formed, and it should be a party to any proposal to the city to render the facts so that the Council and the citizens generally could see what they were before any definite action was taken.

Your committee would recommend that, in lieu of passing the proposed resolution, involving an expenditure on an uncertainty of any practicable result, that a resolution be passed inviting the attention of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company to the subject of a branch of their road to tap the most eligible and extensive coal fields in this district.

The Merrimack Man'g Co. was first incorporated, which was in 1822. There are now 12 corporations, with a total capital stock of $13,900,000. There are 52 mills, 392,234 spindles, and 11,773 looms. Eight thousand eight hundred and twenty females and 4,367 males are employed. Two million two hundred and forty-six yards of cotton, 30,000 yards of woolen, 25,000 yards of carpet, and 50 rugs are manufactured per week.

Twenty-eight thousand three hundred and fifty tons of hard coal, 31,300 bushels of charcoal, 200 cords of wood, 69,717 gallons of sperm and 20,000 gallons of lard oil, 1,-469,100 pounds of starch, and 1,546 barrels of flour are used in the mills in one year. Six hundred and ninety thousand pounds of cotton are used each week. The wheels sand pounds of cotton are used each week. The wheels used are the breast, turbine, and a wheel improved by Mr. Francis. The average wages of females, clear of board, per week, $2. Average wages of males, clear of board, per day, 80 cents.

The pepulation of Lowell in 1828 was 3,532. In 1855 the population was 37,553. The boarding-houses belong to the corporations, and are under the charge of discreet matrons. Several permanent iron ladders, leading from the roof to the basement of the factory building and communicating with the windows of each story by platforms with iron-railings afford means of escaping in the event of fire. The whole Merrimac river is made tributary to the different corporations.

THE SLAVE TRADE FLOURISHING .- According to Mr. J. S. Thrasher, from 1821 to 1854 nearly 300,-000 negroes were brought to the island of Cuba. In 1817 the relative proportion of the whites to the blacks in the island was as 29 to 33; and in 1851 it was as 28 to 44.

The London Times also contains some interesting

The London Times also contains some interesting statistics in relation to the African slave trade. From 1845 to 1856 there were imported successively, year by year, into Brazil from Africa the following batches of slaves: 17,435, 19,095, 22,849, 19,453, 50,324, 56,172, 60,000, 54,000, and 23,000.

We learn, says the Philadelphia Inquirer, from these and other figures, that from 1842 to 1845 the slave traffic, though apparently declining, was at any rate stationary, whereas, in 1846 it received an extraordinary impulse which for four successive years nearly trebled its result. It is unnecessary to add that this increase coincided with those legislative acts which opened the British markets to Brazilian sugars. In 1850, however, though the sugar trade retained all its freedom, the importation of slaves fell to 23,000—scarcely one-half its recent amount—and in the next year the returns were more remarkable still. remarkable still.

Theological Conference Between Protestants and Catholics.—A conference was held on the 2d of Sep-Catholics.—A conference was held on the 2d of September last between four priests and four Protestant ministers, at Divonne, for discussing the principles of Protestantism and Romanism. There were about twenty witnesses present. The representatives of Protestantism were Bungener (the celebrated author of the "Council of Trent" and other well-known theological works), and Jacquet, minister of the national church at Geneva; Guers, of the free church of Geneva; and Bois, of Valence, in France. One of the priests was Mermillod, the editor of the "Annales Catholiques de Geneve" and the author of several polemical works against Protestantism. Official minutes could not be published because the parties could not agree on them. But Rev. Mr. parties could not agree on them. But Rev. Mr. Bungener has published the Protestant and one of the priests the Catholic report on the conference. It is worth noticing that a conference of this kind has been repeatedly offered by Protestant ministers in England to Dr. Cahill, the oracle of the Irish (Zatholics, and, in our country, to Orestes Brownson, but has always been declined.

COLD WEATHER AND FROST BITES. - Tens of thousands of persons suffer annually with frosted limbs, when they could easily be cured by using Porter's Oriental Life Liniment.

Eight hundred bottles of this Liniment were sold at the principal depot in this city on Monday, the 5th of January, nearly every bottle of which was bought especially for the cure of frost-bites. This great demand for the Oriental Life Liniment is in consequence of the universal success which has attended its use in the cure of frost-bites. It is a well-known fact that hundreds of old cases, of from ten to fifteen years' standing, have been permanently cured by the use of this valuable remedy.

Octlike POLICE PROCEEDINGS .- Friday, January 23d .-This must be somewhat related in the calendar to the famous Good Friday. The museum, where all persons of morbid tastes are wont to congregate in order to view specimens of depraved human nature, had but a single object for inspection. That was Alex. Dalton, who had fallen by the wayside, in a state of intoxication. He was discharged. James Lytle was bailed out of the workhouse, Mr. Wm. Kendrick appearing as his surety.

The examination of George T. Gray, for stabbing John Cowdry, was continued until this afternoon.

The remains of Alfred Thruston, Esq., so well and widely known as cashier of the Bank of Louisville, were conveyed to their final resting place this morning, attended by a large number of citizens. At the First Presbyterian church, where Mr. T. had long been a pew-holder, the funeral services were of a very solemn and impressive character.

The news from Washington, is, that Arizona, the Gadsden purchase, as a Territory is not to exist. The House Committee, however, agree that the Territory needs some legislation, and they propose a Federal Judge:

It is to be presumed (says the committee) that the eastern portion of New Mexico will be prepared, at no distant day, for admission into the Union as a State. When the Territory is divided for that purpose, as it unquestionably will be, then would seem to be the proper time for the establishment of a new Territorial Government.

LYERYBODY wants once of TROXEL'S beautiful AM-BROTYPES? Sene months ago the different hun-bug names gotten up by artists to deceive the public at-tracted considerable attention, but now they have ascer-tained how easily it is to be humbugged even by a name, as all other pictures made on glass in Louisville except at Troxel's Gallery are not hermetically sealed, not so beau-tiful, and liable to fade. PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS .- We believe that there exists in our city intelligence and refinement to an extent equal to that of any other city in our Union, and we have been utterly astonished at the degeneracy of taste in regard to public amusements. The ridiculous seems to have triumphed over the sublime, the coarse jests of a circus clown are valued more than the eloquent sentiments of the most gifted authors, ran's and fustian are preferred to truly artistic readering, "Bobbin Around" and "Our Mary Ann' elicit more applause than the choicest musical gems, and the display of a fine pair of legs appears to be a surer passport to public favor than the PIANO - FOR TE MANUFACTERS.

PIANO - FOR TE MANUFACTERERS.

Having increased our facilities, we are now enabled to turn out from ten to twelve Pianos per week. We would respectfully inform our wholesale and retail purchasers that we hope for the future to be able to supply the increased demand for our instruments.

As regards the merits of our Pianos we would respectfully refer to the fact, for the last five years, we have respectfully refer to the fact, for the last five years, we have need in competition. most splendid genius and well cultivated talent.

It is true that we live in an age of humbug, but we have a better opinion of our population than to believe that they have no taste, no discrimination, and no appreciation of the beautiful and excellent. A reform is needed either in the public taste itself or in the mode of manifesting it. The experiences of the present season will mark Louisville as a city to be carefully shunned hereafter by every artist of real merit as a place where the most extraordinary genius and surpassing talents are completely neglected unless heralded by a loud braying of trumpts, paradad for weeks in staving capitals and in the capital staving capitals and some of some of the capital staving to the capital staving capitals and some of the capital staving the capital staving capital st of the present season will mark Louisville as a city pets, paraded for weeks in staring capitals and introduced by cars of music drawn through all our streets with prancing horses decorated with flags and ribbons and rosettes.

Rhymes and Roundelays in praise of a Country Life, Illustrated.
Sabbath Bells chimed by the Poets. Illustrated. We have frequently heard complaints that distinguished actors and actresses and singers and artists of every description do not favor Louisville with a visit, yet the reason is apparent-they are not supported here, and they are unwilling to subject themselves to the mortification of appearing before "a beggarly account of empty boxes," while a circus clown, a comic singer, a troupe of negro minstrels, or Donetti's monkeys will draw houses crowded almost to suffocation.

We are sure that our citizens are doing themselves great injustice in this want of independence and neglect of real merit. We are satisfied that they can, if they will, appreciate true merit and distinguish the false from the real, and we hope that a radical change in the manifestation of public taste will be promptly effected.

An opportunity will be presented to-night for a display of our appreciation and willingness to encourage real merit and superior attainments. The lady who is playing an engagement at our theatre V. exhibit a splendid assortment of FANCY GOODS, TOYS, &c., as—
Inlaid rosewood Regency Dosks;
Mahogany brass bound do;
Plain mahogany and rosewood Desks;
Hande-me Work-Boxes, furnished and unfurnished;
Papier-mache and Morocco Port-Folios;
Jewel Boxes, various styles;
Dressing-Cases, ladies' and gentlemen's;
Ladies' Companions and Reticules;
Fancy Work-Stands, various styles;
Cane Chairs for Children;
Magic Lanthorns, assorted sizes;
Wax, China, and Paper Dolls;
Crying Dolls, Papier-mache and China,
Toys in great variety from 5 cents to $5.
All in search for presents for the coming holidays are requested to call and make selections at once and avoid the rush that always occurs a few days before Christmas, d22 j&b Wikoff's New Book. not only has peculiar claims upon the people of Louisville as a native of the city, but she possesses rare natural endowments, improved by the highest degree of artistic cultivation. All who have seen her have been more than delighted with the exquisite gracefullness and sparkling sprightliness of her manner, with the classic beauty of her form and features and the elegance of her rendering of the characters in which she has appeared. We hope that the opportunity will be improved to show that the taste of our population for public amusements is not altogether depraved, and to prove that the rare attainments, which have enlisted the most fervid enthusiasm elsewhere, can be appreciated and will be liberally patronized by our citizens.

EXTRAORDINARY ROMANCE.—During the investigation of the criminal charges at the Birmingham police on Friday, a young man was lying sleeping upon one of the benches in a corner. His appear-ance exhibited great want, and his boots and trowsers up to his knees were covered with dry mud. He was of very handsome appearance, though the sunken cheeks and prominent eyes betokened a long fasting. He wore a slight moustache and beard of a fair color, and his clothes were of the best texture and make. At the close of the public business, he stepped forward and sought relief of the presiding magistrate. His tale was a romance. He said he was an American by birth, but had left that country more than five years ago to travel in various countries—among others Africa, Turkey, France,

He desired to get to Liverpool, where he knew the American consul and several captains of the Collins line of steamers, and he could rely upon the aid of those gentlemen to transport him to his home. He also said he was a gentleman by birth and education, and that he was the American Vice-consul at Marseilles for ten months. In reply to various questions, he stated that he had been robbed of 200l in a cafe in Paris, where he had been staying. He left London without sufficient means to pay his fare to Liverpool, and intended to foot it; but found that the little money he had was gone too quick. The magistrate then ordered a constable to show the man to the parish officers and ask them to re-lieve him if they could. The papers in his possession bore many foreign postmarks, and some of He afterwards walked about some hours, and ultimately slept in a tub, in a yard in New street, till the cold and wet drove him to walk again. At the parish offices he got no relief, the law not allowing the distribution of money for the purpose for which the American sought it, namely, to forward him on to Liverpool. The relieving officer on duty offered him a note for the workhouse; but that he refused, expressing his determination "to die on the road first," and so left the offices.

A "CRUEL INDISCRETION" IN CANADA.—The To-ronto Weekly Message says that the Rev. T. Creen, rector of St. Marks, in Niagara, C. W., was some weeks since suspended for life, for adultery with one of his parishioners. The sentence of his bishop, Strachan of Toronto, was that he should be so suspended, but should keep his title of rector till January following and then retire from the episcopacy on a life pension of $\frac{9}{400}$ a year! Amongst the testimony against him was the following note enclosed in a copy of Milton's Prose Works:

"My DEAR MES. Low: I subscribe with a good conscience to the doctrine of the great Milton, set forth in his prose works from page 224 to 252, and request a careful perusal of those pages, because I wish to contract an union on these principles, as my wife is good for nothing for that purpose, and I have always admired and regarded you with uncommon affection and partiality.

If you can return the feelings which I entertain, please to signify the same by subscribing the initial of your name under mine, and return the book to me to-morrow with his enclosed.

NIAGARA, May 8, 1855. The Rector's assistant, the Rev. Mr. Reynolds refused to be present at Mr. Creen's service of the communion, and gave as a reason for it the adulterous and drunken life of the Rector. The scandal thus became public. Bishop Strachan had to take notice of it—a trial was ordered—Creen was ungowned yet pensioned, while poor Reynolds was adjudged guilty of a "cruel indiscretion" as the Bishop phrases it, and has been indefinitely suspended from clerical duty!

RELIEF FOR OUR NECESSITIES .- The citizens Pittsburg, gratefully remembering the contributions made for their relief-amounting to $12,000-by the cities of Louisville and Cincinnati after the fire of 1845, propose to give of their abundance for the assistance of our suffering poor. The Pittsburg Dis-

We cannot doubt that the sentiments of the article be-low will meet with an immediate and hearty response from the citizens of Pittsbugh and Allegheny. Coal is abuse-dant here, while at Cincinnati and Louisville (which, se-will be seen, contributed jointly a large sum in aid of the suf-ferers by the Pittsburg fire of 1845 the poor are suffering for want of fuel in the bitter cold of mid-winter.

A correspondent of the same paper says:

I am much mistaken in the character of our coal werchants if they would not deliver it at the Allegheny Realroad depot at cost, or less than cost, as their share of the contribution; and is it too much to say that the managemof our railroads would send it over their respective lines or road on the same terms?

Were proper efforts made, I have no doubt we could send enough to make glad the hearts of many a poor family now suffering for want of that which we have in such greaabundance.

now suffering for want of that which we have in such gra-abundance.

Would it not be a good beginning for the newly elected mayors of our two cities to let one of their first acts be the calling of meetings in Pittsburg and Allegheny, for the pum-pose of devising ways and means to relieve the suffering-of our neighbors in the first mentioned cities?

THE LADIES ARE BECOMING MORE AND MORE alive every year to the importance of Fur Wrappings, which proves most conclusively that this is a progressive age. There is nothing that does so effectually protect them against the consequences of this changsable climate as Furs, and there is nothing so comfortable, elegant, or durable. They can be had of HAYES, CRAIG, & CO. so cheap that it would be economy to purchase Fur instead of Velvet, Cloth, or Silk Cloaks.

We have still a few sets of Russian Sable, which we will dispose of so low that it would be an object to purchase them in mipsdmmer.

LADIES' FURS AT REDUCED PRICES HADIES' FURS AT REDUCED PRICES

II AYES, CRAIG, & CO. are making quite a stir among the ladies in consequence of the low price of their Furs. Having en hand much too large a stock for the season, and much of it too fine for this market—at least the ladies think so—(they do not wish to humbug their customers by "selling at cost")—have reduced their prices very materially, and are now furnishing the ladies with Furs of every description at much lower prices than they were ever before retailed for in the Western country, and intend to do so until after Christmas, which will afford a good opportunity to all those who wish to make Christmas presents.

There certainly is nothing more seasonable for such purposes; and gentlemen inclined that way will find our Furs so low that they are within the reach of all.
